Happy Halloween

ANNUAL FALL CAMPOUT 2026: We will hold our annual campout at Camp Alta Mons in Shawsville this weekend. This is a CS Pack 141 / FG Troop 377 joint venture and what awe-some times we have had in times past. When we arrive, we tipically set up camp. Once that is done, we have little free time. Then comes time to get ready for dinner. Once the fire was going, it is time to cook dinner. We usually have all kinds of food, but the best of all the foods are the hotdogs that we put on skewers and cooked over the open fire. After dinner and cleanup, we did the normal campfire activities, fellowshipped, games and this year we have a movie planned. And we also get what every campfire has… SMORES.

The next day, we have an awesome breakfast, which was provided by our Frontier Girls. And yes, the breakfast is always INCREDIBLE!!! Afterwards, we pack our lunches for the hike, broke down camp, and head out to do some hiking. We break into groups and we hike, we eat lunch, and came back to camp. There is a whole lot more that can be said, but let's just say, "CAMPING IS SO MUCH FUN" and the experience is "so incredible." You'll just have to see the pictures on our Facebook page (@CSPack141), because there is not enough space here to express in words the awesome time we have and just how much fun our camping adventures are. We are looking forward to it.

POPCORN: Our Popcorn fundraiser concluded on October 19. We would like to thank all who participated in this event to help raise money for the Pack in an our effort to keep your out-of-pocket expenses down. While we did not make our sales goal, we thank God for what we have and we are truly grateful for what we were able to raise. We have placed the Pack's total popcorn and prize order on line with Pecatonica River Popcorn and Keller Prize Program. Popcorn pickup is November 14, in the Scout Room. All money is due on or before November 19. Please make all checks payable to Pack 141. Thanks again to everyone who helped with our annual fundraising efforts. Blessings.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT: Adopt-A-Street Program: This month, we were able to complete our four-part CSP: Adopt-A-Street Program. We look forward to our next opportunity for community service.

Let's catch the SCOUTING SPIRIT!

The Cubmaster Minutes:

THE PENNY

You always hear the usual stories of pennies on the sidewalk being good luck, gifts from angels, etc. This is the first time I've ever heard this twist on the story. It will give you something to think about.

Several years ago, a friend of mine and her husband were invited to spend the weekend at the husband's employer's home. My friend, Arlene, was nervous about the weekend. The boss was very wealthy, with a fine home on the waterway, and cars costing more than her house. The first day and evening went well, and Arlene was delighted to have this rare glimpse into how the very wealthy live. The husband's employer was quite generous as a host, and took them to the finest restaurants. Arlene knew she would never have the opportunity to indulge in this kind of extravagance again, so was enjoying herself immensely.

As the three of them were about to enter an exclusive restaurant that evening, the boss was walking slightly ahead of Arlene and her husband. He stopped suddenly, looking down on the pavement for a long, silent moment. Arlene wondered if she was supposed to pass him. There was nothing on the ground except a single darkened penny that someone had dropped, and a few cigarette butts. Still silent, the man reached down and picked up the penny. He held it up and smiled, then put it in his pocket as if he had found a great treasure. How absurd! What need did this man have for a single penny? Why would he even take the time to stop and pick it up?

Throughout dinner, the entire scene nagged at her. Finally, she could stand it no longer. She casually mentioned that her daughter once had a coin collection, and asked if the penny he had found had been of some value. A smile crept across the man's face as he reached into his pocket for the penny and held it out for her to see. She had seen many pennies before! What was the point of this? "Look at it," he said. "Read what it says." She read the words, "United States of America." "No, not that, read further," he said. She read, "One cent?" "No, keep reading," he replies. She reads, "In God we Trust?" "Yes!" he exclaimed. "And?" she asked. "And if I trust in God, the name of God is holy, even on a coin. Whenever I find a coin I see that inscription. It is written on every single United States coin, but we never seem to notice it! God drops a message right in front of me telling me to trust Him? Who am I to pass it by? When I see a coin, I pray, I stop to see if my trust IS in God at that moment. I pick the coin up as a response to God; that I do trust in Him. For a short time, at least, I cherish it as if it were gold. I think it is God's way of starting a conversation with me. Lucky for me, God is patient and pennies are plentiful!?"

When I was out shopping today, I found a penny on the sidewalk. I stopped and picked it up, and realized that I had been worrying and fretting in my mind about things I cannot change. I read the words, "In God We Trust," and had to laugh. Yes, God, I get the message. It seems that I have been finding an inordinate number of pennies in the last few months, but then, pennies are plentiful! And, God is patient . . .

Always Remember Those Who Serve

In the days when an ice cream sundae cost much less, a 10-year-old boy entered a hotel coffee shop and sat at a table. A waitress put a glass of water in front of him. "How much is an ice cream sundae?" he asked. "Fifty cents," replied the waitress. The little boy pulled is hand out of his pocket and studied the coins in it. "Well, how much is a plain dish of ice cream?" he inquired. By now more people were waiting for a table and the waitress was growing impatient. "Thirty-five cents," she brusquely replied. The little boy again counted his coins. "I'll have the plain ice cream," he said. The waitress brought the ice cream, put the bill on the table and walked away. The boy finished the ice cream, paid the cashier and left. When the waitress came back, she began to cry as she wiped down the table. There, placed neatly beside the empty dish, were two nickels and five pennies.

You see, he couldn't have the sundae, because he had to have enough left to leave her a tip.

A PARENT'S PRAYER:

Thank you for my children, Lord; I know they are a gift from you. Daily I need your strength and wisdom to train them in the way they should go. Give me patience and a joyful heart; let me be an example of your love and forgiveness. Thank you, Father, for the honor of being a parent. Amen.

Pack Inspiration:

Why I Am A Cub Scout Leader

I am not a Cub Scout Leader for the easy hours, high pay, parents' gratitude, power, or prestige. I am a leader because I want the world for your son and mine; a world they can share and help shape; a world of love and laughter, where they can show compassion. I want them to look at the stars, a sunrise, a sunset, the work and world of a man, and feel its beauty inside of themselves.

I want to help them learn to finish anything they start and do it well, and to guide them to know their worth with a deeper understanding of themselves. I want to help shape men who have strength of character and are sensitive to the needs of others. I want them to be the best they can be.

I am giving of myself and my time. I reap rewards far beyond what I give. I receive for my children, your children, and future generations a better world. How much is a Cub Scout Leader paid, I hear you ask; my wage consists of smiles and laughter, observing a child's growing self-confidence and the look of personal triumph on the face of a child who has achieved more than they thought they could.

Anyone who can teach me or show me a better way to do this job, anyone who gives of their time to help me become a better leader, and anyone who by action or deed makes the Scouting program come alive will forever have my undying gratitude.

I am a Cub Scout Leader because I care.
